“ Terry and I worked in the North Georgia dining hall together for at least a couple of years. I must admit that I have not seen Terry since college, but some people never change. Terry was a great coworker and friend to all. Over the years I have thought about Terry and that humorous laugh.....
I will think about him being gone, but I will have a smile as I recall his laugh, God speed Terry

I think we all had the opportunity to work with Terry in the Chowhall. I got to know him more working on the Eagle Fund but what I will remember most was his love for all animals. He would always post something on Facebook about dogs, cats, and horses needing to be re-homed. You could see his love for animals. GOD speed SOLDIER you were a Great American. 🇺🇸 🐶 🐱 🐾 🐎 🙏 ❤️

“ Terry was an early morning regular at the Greenville Sportsclub. He was always friendly and we miss his smiling face and frequent laughter. He enjoyed talking with fellow members as much as he enjoyed getting some exercise. My condolences to the family...Kevin “ Terry is a genuine and kind person. He was "Mr Rogers" in the flesh and blood. We coached kid sport teams together, worked together, played together, lived almost next door to each other, and raised families together. I always trusted Terry. As I said just as pure as a soldier/trooper can be. We all aspire to be Terry.

He and Joe and our two sons (Matt and Hank) at the time (my family grew by one more, Peter) went on a mano-e-mano ski trip. At the spur of moment Terry banged on our German neighbors home, the Wurm family, late in the evening with cognac to toast the German world cup victory. That was Terry, gracious, kind, fun loving, and inclusive.

Terry loved his family; especially his three kids. After work and in between sport seasons, Terry helped set up neighborhood games. As you can imagine lots of fun, lots of laughing, and no one was left out.

God Bless the Allen Family. What a fortuitous life shared with Terry.
