

Thomas Michael Durham

July 13, 1988 - August 20, 2025

Thomas Michael Durham
Seneca, South Carolina

Thomas “Michael” Durham, 37, of Seneca, entered into eternal rest at his home on Wednesday, August 20, 2025.

Born on July 13, 1988, in Easley, South Carolina, Michael was the beloved son of the late Tommy E. Durham, Connie Clark and his stepfather Russell Clark. He will be remembered for his kind heart, love of the outdoors, and his strong faith in his Lord and Savior. Michael especially enjoyed fishing and found peace in nature. He worked as a dedicated tow truck driver for Jim’s Auto, where he was known for his hard work and reliability. Above all, Michael cherished his family and the time he spent with them.

Michael is survived by his children, Gracie Seigle of Liberty and Tristan Durham of Six Mile; his siblings, Allison Whiten, Cody Smith, Stephanie Ledford, and Callie Mauldin; his grandmother, Nancy Durham; aunts, Suzie McCoy (Mike), Phyllis Simpson, and Renee Frazier; uncle, Charles Owens; and a host of cousins, nieces, and nephews who will miss him deeply.

He was preceded in death by his grandfather, Donnie Durham, and grandmother, Margaret Soulsby.

The family will host a Memorial Service on Tuesday, August 26, 2025, at Mile Creek Baptist Church starting at 4:00pm.

The Durham family is being cared for by Mountain View Funerals and Cremations

“ We haven't seen each other in years. But I remember all the days we all hung out at Tim and Doris's house. Hanging out around bonfires and just chatting. You had a beautiful soul. Rest easy, my friend.

“ Mikey was one of the best guys I could have ever worked with. He was smart, witty, funny, great personality and a great co-worker. He was honestly my best friend and my brother. He will greatly be missed by those of us at Jim's Auto Inc and he will be missed and remembered by my family. He may be gone but he will never be forgotten. Fly high Mikey till we meet again brother.

“ Michael will be greatly missed at Jim's Auto and Towing. We at Jim's Auto and towing were greatly blessed to have had the opportunity to have such a great person touch our lives. He was very hard working and reliable, he had such a warm kind spirit and was always willing to help someone. Our hearts are broken and deeply saddened by his passing. Our hearts, thoughts and prayers go out to his family.
