“ My mother was known as “Coot” in the Tant family. We regularly visited Uncle “Ot” and Aunt Frankie with our parents when my brother Tommy, and I were growing up in Atlanta. We loved being around our cousins, Jackie, Linda and Doug. Jackie was such a kind hearted, loving human being, and it was an honor to call him our cousin. We last saw him in October of 2023 at Sonya and Marcia’s house, when many of the cousins gathered while our other cousin, Jackie Sechrist, was in town. It was such a fun and nostalgic gathering of family, and I am so grateful that we were able to spend time with Jackie and Linda that day. Jackie was always kind, always welcoming, always mindful of the Lord. I treasure having known him, and my heart breaks that he is gone. I know that he is with our family in Heaven and with our Father, and some day I will see him again. May God bless his family and lift their hearts.

Thank you so much for your kind words. He loved being able to visit with all of you at Sonya and Marcia’s that day. It meant so much to him. He loved all of you very much. Family and living for the Lord meant everything to him.
