“ Kyle, Wes, and Chris so sorry of the earthly loss of your daddy. But what a great homecoming will be one day when you all are with him praising around Jesus feet!! I'm looking forward to that day with my daddy. Ours dads can talk about starting to preach together at Mt Sinia!! Gods Grace be with you all during the coming days. Gods Grace is sufficient.
Love you all

“ Whenever I hear the name “Tommy Wimpey” I can see him standing at the pulpit at Mt Sinai singing with the anointing of God! He must have sang this verse and chorus 10-15 times as the altars filled over and over! I like to remember him like that! What a blessing to have heard him sing about the place he is now rejoicing in! We are praying for you all! Just wanted to share his verse...

“Life, is full of snares, trials, seem so hard to bear, it's then that I reach for, that hand, I know is always there, and finding, He still cares, I bow my head, and say this humble prayer Oh With All My heart, I Thank you Lord!

Yes with all, my heart, and with all, my soul,

Thank You, for Calvary, it's riches untold.....

Thank You for Heaven's fair,

The place you've prepared me there

Now with all my heart Thank You Lord! “

To Kathy and the Wimpey Family, Tommy was a great friend to Sammy Dale and me. We always loved hearing him sing and spending time with he and Kathy. Sammy Dale spoke to him a couple of weeks ago. We didn't call often enough but we prayed for his condition and recovery regularly. We'll miss him. Rest in Peace Tommy..you were loved by many and Kathy, so are you. We know he'll be waiting on the far side banks of Jordan, sitting drawing pictures in the sand. And, when he sees us coming, he will rise up with a shout, running through the shallow waters, reaching for our hand! Sincerely, Sammy Dale and Donna Reece
