

Tony Shehan

June 29, 1954 - May 29, 2019

Clarence Edward Shehan (Tony Shehan) born June 29, 1954, was called home and left this world on May 29, 2019 in Fort Walton Beach, Florida. He was the son of Dewey B. Shehan, Jr. and Hazel Ruth Durham both deceased of Pickens. He leaves behind a former wife Iva Stratton Shehan and 2 step children Shelly Wilson and Erica Hyland. He had one sister, Ruth Smith, wife of Terry Smith of Pickens their two children Missy Mauldin (Bear) and Chris Smith. A brother David Bryan Shehan and wife Robin of Pickens. A brother Richard Allen Shehan (Al Shehan), deceased and former wife Angela Shehan and their two children Amanda Vaughn and Robbie Shehan. He also leaves behind several Uncles, Ted Shehan, Albert Durham, Carl Durham, and a Aunt Helen (Susie) Bell.

Tony was a graduate of the Class of 1971 at Pickens High School. He loved playing music in a band in high school with his friends.

He was a Registered Land Surveyor in Pickens, SC., for 38 years.

He was a former pilot, and was on the aeronautics commission, and a champion Target shooter. He was a great deer, duck, and turkey hunter and loved to fish too. He loved to ride on his tractor and plow his fields at his house on Oolenoy River bottoms and plant corn and sunflowers and then take endless pictures of the birds in the flowers, and watch the bears, turkeys, raccoons, and deers eat the corn in the fields. He like to be outdoors just doing anything.

Tony led a good and productive life but a severe bleed in the brain, whether it was a stroke or aneurysm it was more than he could stand.

A Memorial service will be held at Mountain View Funeral Home in Pickens, SC on June 28 2019 at 2:00, and a short visitation with family and friends from 2:15 until 3:00.
