“ I was in Camp Fallujah, Iraq, in 2006, and received a message to call Tracy....I called her, she answered, then put me on hold...then, she was back, wanting advice on how to help a friend. I often laugh at the thought of being put on hold in a combat zone....Tracy had the most wonderful goodness about her in trying to help her friends. I'll see her on the other side of Jorden one day....and put her on hold! ;) ;)

“ Every time I got to hangout with Tracey, it was like we had been best friends our whole life! We had grown up knowing each other and our families, but I had the pleasure of hanging out with Tracey mostly when Savanna and Jay"bird" were small and they played with my kids...lol, and we all 4 were having fun "horsin-around" outside! I knew she was always there if I needed anything, and vice versa. I thank God for the privilege of having Tracey for my friend! Heaven has more joyful laughter today because of Tracey arriving at her "forever home"!

“ Tracey was a dear friend of mine. I loved her and have many memories of deep conversations, and meaningful fb messages that always touched me. The last time we talked on the phone, we talked about "our connection".....but you know what I loved most about Tracey? Her strength and bravery. She broke thru the racial walls when no one else dared to do so. Tracey let you know where she stood and fought for race equality. A true lover of people's hearts and minds. Not color. She sure did love savannah and jbird... and those grands were her heart. Life is sadder without tracey, but Heaven is dancing. RIP girl. We love you!!

“ Dan and Phyllis, having grown up in the Pickens area and knowing you and many of your family members, I feel your loss. We parents seemingly should go first but that is not always the case. As a parent and friend, I send my thoughts and prayers for now and in the coming Christmas season.
