Trenton James Black

January 30, 1984 – October 8, 2024

Trenton James Black, 40, passed away on Tuesday, October 8, 2024, in Bishopville, SC. Trent is the son of Rhonda Black of Easley and the late Greg A. Black.

Trent is survived by his daughter, Kielyn Riddle; his maternal grandmother, Betty Breazeale; a niece, Rylee Black; and a special brother, Melvin Bennefield.

He was predeceased by his brothers, Ryan Black, and Travis Black; his father, Greg Black; maternal grandfather, James W. Breazeale; and paternal grandparents, Robert and Geneva Black.

Trent was a product of a system that failed him for years: Mental Health, Judicial, and Corrections. Trent loved children, the elderly, and animals and would defend them, help them, and protect them. He was fiercely protective of his momma and grandma. He loved motorcycles, drag races, and rap music so loud you could hear him coming. He had a heart of gold and would help you when needed.

Visitation will be held on Friday, November 1, 2024, from 2:00 PM until 3:00 PM in the chapel of Mountain View Funeral Home in Pickens with a memorial service to follow at 3:00 PM.

Flowers will be accepted.

“ Trent and I went to Simpson Academy together. He was always in big brother mode over alot of us. From him I met his brothers Travis, and Ryan who we called "Bubbles" and his beautiful sweet mama. Trent was an old soul, carefree, and very much said everything exactly how he thought it. If he considered you a friend then you was absolutely that, his friend, and he loved you something fierce. I'll never forget him coming down the hall at school to us short girls and him jumping in the middle and his long arms draped over our shoulders with his tall self. His laugh was contagious as well as his smile. Even tho we came from different schools to Simpson, we met ppl from other schools and those were the ones we all made friendships out of. We were all one in the same. We didn't care, we understood each other. I will always remember his goofy laugh because it would make me laugh my loud goofy laugh and I needed that a lot. Trent you will be missed but absolutely never forgotten my friend. Love you bro. Save a place for me up there ok.

“ I keep catching myself thinking about us riding the motorcycle. And all the times we had together and I just burst out crying. This wasn't supposed to happen to you you were supposed to make it home. I will always love you. You stole my heart and in some ways I never got it back. I will always miss you Trent

“ *Trent,
I know we didn't always have the best relationship. I am thankful that we had tried to make things better at the end. I will always make sure Kielyn is loved and has the best life possible. She has all the best qualities of you. Always keep an eye on her. I'll make sure you aren't forgotten. Rest in Peace. You are free now.*

“ Trent was always there for me whenever necessary, he rode hard and was protective of people he cared about. I remember all to well when I we were a LOT younger and my sister had gone through something traumatic, he was up to batt when I wanted to go handle it. He didn't even second guess. Love u always brother, rest in peace, they don't own you anymore.
