

Tyler Allen Clark

May 31, 1995 - December 19, 2018

Born in Jacksonville Florida, Tyler moved to Missoula, Montana at a young age. It was there that his love for the outdoors was formed. His love grew into a passion as Tyler became an avid snowboarder and fisherman. While in Missoula he played little league baseball in which he excelled. Tyler brought his talents to South Carolina at the age of 13 where he added football and golf to his list of accomplishments. In high school, Tyler was on the football and golf team, but he also had a passion for music and played the cello in the high school orchestra. Tyler continued his education after high school by attending Tri-County Technical College where he earned several certifications in automobile technology. Tyler's passion for automobiles grew as he worked for BMW where he was able to take part in building his dream car. Most recently Tyler found himself back outdoors working for True Green in Charlotte, North Carolina.

A wealth of knowledge in all sports, Tyler focused on his favorite sport baseball, the Atlanta Braves where he memorized decades of statistics of his favorite players. Tyler's all - time favorite player was Chipper Jones who he was able to meet in Greenville, South Carolina.

Tyler was always there to tell a joke or play a prank on an unsuspecting person. If someone was upset, Tyler was always there to help pick them up. Tyler loved to put a smile on everyone's face, but out of all of Tyler's talents and passions, being a son, brother, and friend were his greatest accomplishments of all.

Tyler is survived by his parents Robert Allen Clark, Cynthia Lynne Linkenhoker (Kevin), brothers; William Danny Linkenhoker, Ridge Taylor Clark, a sister Ashley Lynne Clark, Grandparents; Hugh Edward and Linda Sue Strayhorn, Barbara Beebe, Nancy Elaine Linkenhoker and Sally Mae Linkenhoker, a uncle Garry Marc Burgoyne, aunts; Lisa Lynn Obi (Joe), Beth Ann Baker (Cliff), Karen Ann Mumford (Aaron), Melinda Hoeffler (David) and numerous cousins on both sides.

Tyler is predeceased by William W. Linkenhoker and Danny Linkenhoker.

“ I have only met Tyler a few times. And each time he was a true gentleman. Handsome, kind, loving. I know you're searching for answers and I wish I had them ALL for Tyler's family and friends. One thing I know for certain is that whatever it was that this young man could not talk about, The Heavenly Father already knew. And if it gives you a glimmer of hope and peace, please be reassured that this fine young man is in the arms of his Unconditional Loving, Forgiving and Faithful Father. This young man had the most amazing mother any child could ever ask for! Much love and prayers for the family. May God hold you tight and comfort you. ❤️

“ I'm sorry. I wish that there was something we could have said or done to change this. I wish I could have seen you more, spent more time with you, and really known you better as adults. We had so much fun as kids, so many memories in Charleston and spending summers together. I still picture you as a kid, though I know you've grown and changed so much. Tyler, you will be missed and you will never be forgotten. Uncle Robbie, Ridge, and Ashley, I love y'all and I'm deeply sorry. I wish there was some way to take away your pain.

“ Rest In Peace Montana. I remember the days on the football field and your work ethic out there. No matter how hard the day may have been you always had a positive attitude. That’s something I know you continued on throughout life. I am thankful to have known you and had laughs together. I send prayers up now for the Clark family and to also let you know that it has been a privilege to know Tyler. I pray for peace, ease, and strength in this time of sorrow for all of you right now and stay strong within the Lord.

“ Tyler was one of the sweetest young men I had ever had the pleasure of knowing. He brought me flowers to my home when I had my first hip replacement. He was always checking in on me from time to time. He was always so polite and respectful of others. I will always carry a special place in my heart for Tyler. Rest in peace sweet boy.
