“ Wendy was our neighbor and the sweetest lady! We talked about our kids and she would always tell me how precious my grandkids were and how she missed her son being little . She will be missed but I know she is excited to be with her Mom! God Bless the family at this time.

“ Wendy loved her family! She would talk about how clean her mom kept the house and how talented her dad is and their love of Jesus. She always bragged about Dennie and Sherry and she loved her nieces and nephews. There is no greater love than the love she had for Christian! She is so proud of Christian and the man he has become. I have so many wonderful memories and she will be greatly missed. Angel Family, please reach out if you ever need anything and I love you!

“ Wendy was so comical without trying. The phrase "I don't pay it no attention " would still crack me up, although she'd used it for over 30 years! My dear sweet you'll be missed for sure.

“ Just over a week ago, I stepped close to her bed and said “Wendy Faye, it’s Katherine Faye”. She grabbed my hand and said “Katherine Faye, I love you. you are my baby”. We both laughed. Even though I am her older cousin, in that moment, I knew I was her baby because she loved me and held me in her heart. After a wonderful visit, I leaned in and kissed her on the cheek and told her I loved her. My last memory of her, was hearing her sweet voice say again, “I love you, too”. Wendy Faye Angel, you will remain in my heart forever.
