“ Tina and Alan, I know your heart is broken as mine would surely be at a time like this. Wesley was a delight to have at ARL and made everyone happy. He had an infectious laugh and always a gleam in his eye. I will always remember the beautiful young boy he was in school.

“ My condolences and prayers for the Gantt family and loved ones. Lib, I am so sorry for your loss. I hurt with you although I have not lost a child or grandchild. I do not know how you feel, but I pray God will give you the peace and strength to go through this time. I have always thought the world of you because of how you took care of my dear friend, Emmett. Take care, My Friend.
