“ First of all, let me offer my condolences to the family. You ALL will be in our thoughts and prayers. He fought a good battle, but now has earned his wings.

Cousin Bill was one of a kind; hey, we ALL ARE. I will never forget his generosity to me with the iron poles that he "custom made" when our home was being built. They are still in place, doing a great job holding up our deck and back porch. Jerry & I were VERY close to these cousins growing up and although Bill was a little older than I, I still remember him well. Mostly how the girls would "wait on" and "do things" for those boys....they were spoiled...(in MY opinion). We had great times and now have great memories to hold on to.

May the Lord hold each one of you close in HIS arms.

*With Much Sympathy,
Neal & Delta*

“ I grew up a little behind "Billy" back then but we rode the bus he drove to school. The Alexander family, all of them, were friendly and always a pleasure to be around. We lived down the road and those memories remain. May the promises of God comfort each of you during this season of life. There is coming a daywhen there will be no more pain or tears.
