Winona Sentell Coleman, age 86, loving wife to Franklin Calvin Coleman, went home to be with her Lord and Savior on Sunday, April 6, 2025, at Cottingham Hospice House in Seneca.

Born on August 18, 1938, in Cateechee, South Carolina, Winona was the beloved daughter of the late Hurstell M. Sentell and Grace Martin Sentell. A faithful member of Rock Springs Baptist Church in Easley, Winona's unwavering faith in her Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ, was the cornerstone of her life. Her devotion to Christ was evident in every aspect of her life, reflected through the love, compassion, and care she selflessly offered to her family, friends, neighbors, fellow church members, and anyone in need whom she encountered. Known for her deep commitment to both Scripture and prayer, Winona was a devoted Bible reader and a steadfast prayer warrior, often lifting up others in heartfelt petitions. As an exceptional cook, she joyfully opened her home, sharing countless meals with friends and family, always feeding others with warmth and kindness. Winona's life was a beautiful testament to the power of love, faith, and service to others.
