“ Zane was my homeboy. The last of a real friend. We wasn't always together but we both knew if we needed to morning would be there for each other I met him when he was 14, hanging out in the shed doing tattoos chilling. Still hasn't hit me that I won't be able to talk to my friend again I don't care what other people thought about him the people that he made mad he was a good dude and would do anything for his friends you will be missed Zane. ONE O LOVE

Riding out by the lake full throttle. 4ever young CUZZO hold it down till I get there. I love you 4L

“ Zane was a great person and there was never a dull moment around him he always knew how to Make people laugh and was someone who was 100% authentic in everything he did. He was someone who I considered my brother we’ve known each other since a very young age all together 21 years now if I ever needed him he was there and we always looked out for each other. I will never forget all the great times we had together I love you bro and I’ll always keep your memory alive like you always said you’re a winner and winners don’t die and you’re memory will never die you’ll always live forever in our heart. Things will never be the same I couldn’t have ever imagined something like this happening and I’d give anything to have one more conversation with you but I know that I will get to do that again some day it’s just really hard it’s like a peace of me died honestly. I love you Zane and miss you brother you will never be forgotten.

“ Deborah and Aaron and Ashley, I just heard of Zane's passing. I'm so sorry for the loss you all have suffered. Not just ya'll, but everyone who ever met Zane. He was loved by everyone who knew him, and will be sorely missed. I hope y'all find peace and comfort during this. I will forever remember and cherish the memories I have of him. My fondest memories of him will be his unique ability to bring a smile to your face and make you laugh no matter how bad the situation. He could bring peace and comfort to the worst of situations. I'm truly glad to have had the privilege of knowing him and calling him my friend. Again, I'm so sorry! - BO
